Appointment of Chief Risk Officer

Lancashire Holdings Limited ("Lancashire or the Company") today announced that Mike Pearson has decided to relinquish his role as Chief Risk Officer for the Company and will be leaving Lancashire with effect from 28 February 2013. The Company has appointed Charles Mathias as Chief Risk Officer, subject to the relevant regulatory approval. Charles' role will encompass responsibility for the enterprise risk management activities of the Group and its main operating subsidiary companies, Lancashire Insurance Company Limited and Lancashire Insurance Company (UK) Limited.

Charles has been with Lancashire since it was founded in 2005 and has over 28 years experience in underwriting and insurance broking including significant management responsibilities in the London, Bermuda, US and Latin American insurance markets. As the Group Underwriting Operations Director from 2006 until 2012, Charles was responsible for the design, implementation and continued development of the underwriting systems and procedures for Lancashire. As Lancashire Insurance Company Limited's Chief Underwriting Officer until late 2011, he has been involved in the underwriting of every line of business of Lancashire. He is currently a member of the Risk and Reward Committee ("RRC") and the Company's Underwriting and Underwriting Risk Committee.

Richard Brindle, Group Chief Executive Officer commented:-

"We are sorry that Mike has decided to leave and would like to thank him for his significant contribution to the development of Lancashire's Internal Audit and ERM capabilities. We are delighted that Charles has agreed to succeed Mike in this key position, Charles' broad experience of international insurance markets and understanding of insurance risks, allied with his extensive involvement in developing systems and procedures, provides him significant insight and expertise in all areas of risk. A combination of this experience and Charles' independence of mind suit him well for the Chief Risk Officer role. "
